

I was at Kansas watching tv. Then I heard screaming. I ran out of the room. I looked down and saw my brother asleep. I smelt breakfast. I looked over and saw my brother now was playing xbox.

Then we were walking to the basketball court. My brother now had a basketball. Me, Cameron, Dustin, Meghan, Thomas started to play. It was uneven. It was me, Thomas, Meghan vs Dustin and Cameron. I said we are going to win!

Then we jumped ball. My sister caught the ball. Then she looked up at me and passed me the ball. I said to myself I am not going to make it. But I had to shoot the ball. I shot the ball and it went in. They all high-fived me. Then I ran down court to play defense on Cameron.

Then the game ended. But we didn't win Cameron and Dustin won. We lined up to pretend like it was a real game. We said good game to each other. Then we walked back to the house to go eat lunch and get new clothes on because our clothes were wet in are swet.

This is my favorite place because me and my brother finally got along. And because I got to see my sister again!

~Ciarra